

Endo Flow

A British Made Solution

Endo Flow for use with Fresenius/Aguettant

Endo Flow for use with Baxters

Endo Flow is the solution to:-

- Decontaminating water bottles and connectors
- Potential Damage to connectors during decontamination
- Expensive replacement of water bottles

Endo Flow attaches to the sterile water bottle supplied by Baxters and Fresenius/Aguettant and is disposed of at the end of each day.

Use Endo Flow in your Endoscopy Unit and support a British company supplying British made products.
